Gentlemen.-

I regret that your favor of 20th inst. to which you expected prompt reply should not have reached me until I returned to the City this morning,, and in immediate response now beg to state that I am not in the market for expensive coins at this time, and really find your price for the $50.- gold piece which you describe, higher than from what I paid for a very fine specimen a short time ago, I had judged that they would sell at.-

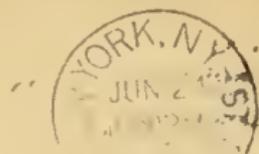

Appreciative of Mrs. Walter's kindness in giving you my name and of the attention shown me at your hands, I am,

Respectfully yours,

A large, handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "W. G. Greene". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a prominent "W" at the beginning and a "G" in the middle. It is written over a horizontal line and is flanked by two short horizontal lines, one on each side.
